

Ode To An Onion

Oh onion how beautiful you are

You are a ballerina pirouetting

While deep purple rivers dance along your surface

All your soft petals concealing your heart underneath

Your fluorescent scent is beautiful enough to send me to tears

Oh onion you are the one and only

Written by Owen, Year 5, Wheatfield Primary School