

The Dragonbel

Dragonbel lives on the misty mountain,
On the side of the lake where a purple flower lays,
With scaly and shiny skin.

She has sixteen points on her back
And when she opens her mouth and makes it go clack!
If she eats the purple flower, she will breathe out fire.

And she scares all the children in their beds
And makes the old ones shiver with fear..
...all the people keep the sheep and goats inside the cave.
