The running river

Once there was a running river

It was a dancing fairy

You could hear a soft melody

The waves were crashing against the rocks

There were golden fish leaping above the glittering galaxy

Flowing like a sloth clambering a tree

The water was crystal clear

It started beating like a heart

It was a slithering snake

It was a galloping horse

It was shining blue in the sun
