

In an island in the sky there was a dragon who was exploring. To his amazement he spotted a key hole. His tail was shaking and his heart was beating at an accelerated rate. A gust of wind blew a gold key into his hand, he put the key in the keyhole and the keyhole grew bigger and bigger. He was nervous as another gust of wind blew him in. All around him he could see perfectly trimmed flowers, ruby red roses and lava fountain. He was amazed!

Bailie.